

Dressage University Sunday, August 5th

The Tucson Dressage Club would like to invite you to

“How Conformation Impacts Your Performance and Your Wallet” “Choosing the Right Horse for the Job”

Presented by Dorie Vlaten-Schmitz
Grand Prix trainer and rider ‘S’ level USEF Judge

*How do various aspects of conformation affect dressage potential?
Is my horse likely to have the ability to reach the highest levels?
Is this the right young dressage prospect for me?
Can dressage training benefit my hunter/jumper or western horse?
Conformation deal breakers!*

This Event is Open to the Public

Where: Miller-Golf Links Library 9640 E. Golf Links, SE corner of Harrison and Golf Links with horse demonstrations related to lecture content at Raven Ranch covered arena located on Harrison Rd just south of Escalante and the Pantano Wash

Date: Sunday August 5th

Time: 1 – 3 pm ^{approx.} for lecture and videos at library; 3:30 – 5:00 at Raven Ranch

RSVP- Please RSVP to Nancy McGibbon – nhmcgibbon@gmail.com and for questions

Cost: TDC Members – No Charge Non-members: $10

Misc: Please bring chair and water for horse demo portion