

Dressage Clinics with Vera Munderloh

Vera has been training under the tutelage of international classical rider, teacher, and author Anja Beran for more than 10 years and is now Anja's chief professional rider at Gut Rosenhof. Vera has vast experience from riding up to 12 horses daily-green youngsters to further training in the advanced movements. Vera has trained many horses from breaking to high school level and attended the Spanish Riding School to perfect her training with the long reins.

Anja Beran and her staff are committed to preserving classical equestrianism. Anja is the epitome of equestrian skill. She has been training horses of a wide variety of breeds, to the highest level, for over 25 years, is a published author and is filmed regularly for pferdia tv.

For more information about Anja Beran and her foundation see www.anja-beran.com

For more information about clinics please contact:
Carrie Kohlun 602-284-7076 carrie@adoberanchdressage.com