

BETH BAUMERT EDUCATIONAL CLINIC

Author of WHEN TWO SPINES ALIGN: DRESSAGE DYNAMICS and HOW TWO MINDS MEET

November 27 & 28, 2021

Location: Sage Mountain Equestrian Center, 28345 N. 84th Street, Scottsdale, 85266

Beth Baumert was the initial editor for Dressage Today magazine, and later served as its technical editor for nearly 25 years. In that capacity, she was in constant contact with the best dressage riders in the world as they discussed and wrote about the technical aspects of dressage. From this depth of knowledge, Beth wrote her first book, When Two Spines Align. It continues to serve as a “bible” for serious dressage riders. Beth has been a USDF-Certified Instructor since nearly the inception of the program, and is an “L” graduate judge. She is President and CEO of The Dressage Foundation. Beth lives in Wellington, FL, and Columbia Lake, CT. Her favorite vacation spot is Sedona and the entire Baumert clan will be there the week before the clinic.

Rider Fee $165 each day (includes a box lunch)

Turn-outs with shade and water - $35 a day (bring your own hay).

Trailer-in fee is $20 a day.

Auditor Fee $25 one day only, $40 for both days (bring a chair). Box lunch $15 extra.

There will be 8 riders, chosen in order of request, and must commit to ride on both days. A list of alternates will be kept.

Beth will conduct a lecture on the first day before the rides and during the lunch.

Please email rider and auditor requests to Pamela Polydoros: icyclipper@aol.com